THE NUMBERS AND VALUE OF EACH LETTER:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
A	B	C	D	E	F	G	H	I
J	K	L	M	N	O	P	Q	R
S	T	U	V	W	X	Y	Z	&

All numbers are added up to make single bold digits in brackets E.g. 10 is 1+0 = (1)

All except: 11, 22 and 33 (THE MASTER NUMBERS)

- Firstly, calculations are given in this Chart because some people are interested in how their numbers came about. However it's not necessary to pay attention to the maths, read what your Chart says and follow the time-lines in the forecast.
- The "Numbers and Value of each Letter" (above) allows you to check additions and compare Name Compatibilities and Observations on the last page of your Chart, this is where recommendations are made to balance your personal name, nickname and signature with your Numerology.
- Depending on age and maturity, you might still have some way to go in discovering your true potential. Personal Talents, Cosmic Lessons and different professions all help guide you to reach and embrace your dreams.
- All numbers that add up to the digit of your Name Destiny, Soul's Urge, Birth Path and Power Numbers are your lucky numbers. They help you esp. when choosing a house/business address or taking a bet. Words and Numbers shown in italic or bold are meant to be important as well.
- Your Soul's Urge comes from the Vowels in your Full Name and the Consonants show your real Personality. The combined total of these add up to your Name Destiny e.g. So number 18 becomes 1+8 = (9), this adds up to the single bold digit 9, which is Your Number in brackets.
- Take note, Your Numbers will inform you of both your strengths and weaknesses and learning from them will be work-in-progress so don't be too hard on yourself. I recommend you read your Chart periodically. One client said it was like reading a brand new document after reading her Chart 2 years later.
- Finally I must point out, Numerology is a Science and this data is not based on speculation or psychic ability. Your personal Chart simply facilitates progress and remember your Soul's Urge (Inner Self) is greater than your Personality.

Your Name (Destiny) or Purpose in life:

You were born with a definite purpose in life. You might want to pursue something entirely different from what you should experience but eventually, if you make a sincere effort to strive for the direction of your destiny, avenues will open up for you. And with that, you will succeed in accomplishing your true purpose and opportunities in life. Be sure to consult your Pinnacle Number in combination with your Name Destiny, as this will give you the best indication of your outlook.

Number Seven

You were meant to be an educator in the field of science or the mysteries of life. You are a deep thinker, and could succeed in inventive and scientific pursuits, as well as uncovering the hidden meaning of nature. You need to spend time alone and in silence in order to meditate and receive inspiration from within. You should be a specialist and live by realities and not by superficialities. You are inclined to gather knowledge from all sources. Any partnerships, including marriage, may not be successful for you. Gaining understanding and acquiring wisdom should be your main aim. You could do research work, study religion, be a writer, lawyer, technician, or an expert in antiques. You must be discriminating, gathering facts and weighing them carefully before imparting your findings to others. You may be considered strange or out of the ordinary, since you are a loner and follow unusual paths. You may be sought as a counsellor due to your superior knowledge. See further attributes under "General Meaning of Numbers".

General Meaning of Name (Destiny) Number:

Number Seven

This number refers to Venus, which is shrouded in cloud, and takes on the powers of that planet. If you are a number seven, you are mysterious and a deep thinker, you will absorb knowledge from practically every source. Being intellectual, scientific and studious, you never accept a premise unless you have analyzed the situation thoroughly and reached your own conclusion. You dislike suggestions from others, this is mainly because you think you are an authority on any subject. You dislike manual labour.

You are spiritually and philosophically inclined and you resent injustice. You can easily detect deception or recognize a superficial individual and don't like to mix with people you do not know. You should never attempt to get even, for it will act as a boomerang and hurt you more than the person you try to injure. Like five (unless 5 is in your profile) you observe others, but unlike five you don't don camouflage to get involved in the world. What you observe or are told, you keep as a store of wisdom.

You are not as domestic as a number six, or as practical as a number four unless those numbers are part of your profile. While you may be religious you often lean more toward metaphysics. You must learn to live alone and not be lonely. You want quietude to meditate to live an inner life but this makes you reserved and often shy. Usually you will avoid crowds, for you may become upset when subjected to noise and confusion.

Sevens don't create ideas as much as you gather ideas from some universal pool. You have access to a storehouse of information from which all ideas have come originally. One never knows where your ideas come from, only you know and you continue to explore yourself and your internal world. You may appear to be cold and aloof, but this is because you are satisfied with your inner life. Your keynote is perfection, not popularity.

You are an idealist rather than a down to earth individual so you may fail to understand the world around you unless one of the even numbers are prevalent in your makeup. And rather than being distant from the world you may prefer to hide from it; just remember no prisoner is more trapped than those who refuse to escape. You might put on rose coloured spectacles, which you never take off. You may turn inward to such an extent that you never come to apply what you perceive - or relate it in a very lop-sided fashion. You may be wise in most ways but you can fall for: 'if ignorance is bliss then 'tis folly to be wise'.

As a number seven, you can rely on your intuition and follow your hunches. You believe that seeking knowledge is second only to acquiring understanding and wisdom. In ancient Greece and Rome, there was an understanding that not all knowledge was intellectual in nature. Some knowledge took a special knack to have. This was called gnosis (divinity). Sevens are people who understand the importance of gnosis. Even if you don't possess it, you understand it. You love nature and are fond of animals.

You could succeed as an actor or performer, social or political analyst, archaeologist, astrologer or mystic, solicitor or prosecutor, stockbroker, character analyst, civic affairs, clergyman, coin or art expert, counselor, columnist or critic, dean or headmistress, designer, doctor or specialist, editor, engineering, surveyor, geologist, historian, horticulturist, inventor or creator, investment lawyer, judge or arbitrator, human resources, occultist, organizer, market analyst, mediator, model, musician, navigator, numerologist, nun, patent attorney, photographer, physicist, psychiatrist, psychic investigator, forensics, psychologist, researcher, religious analyst, meteorologist, scientist, sportsman, surgeon, teacher and writing. You could become an authority in a wide variety of professions - particularly on antiques, jewelry, coins, history, protocol, or interior design. Research is your forte.

Your Birth Path Destiny:

This number is imposed on you at birth. It is what the universe demands that you learn in this lifetime. The manner in which you conquer your obligation or learn your lessons is stated in this number. This also shows your qualities such as your talents, character and the ability to meet the experience of your present destiny. Your Birth Path also states what you have to your credit - and what you must do to advance to the next level.

Number Five - Freedom

You should learn to be versatile as you can pursue more than one line of endeavour at the same time. You want to be free to travel, try new things, make changes and follow unusual paths. Your destiny is to work towards being a specialist and becoming interested in the many aspects of life.

You will have opportunity to sample many exotic fruits, but you have to learn how to make practical use of them. Your appeal is to all sexes and crowds. You will never willingly settle down to routine work for long periods. You must be careful not to indulge in the vices of drink, sex and dope because you could easily fall prey to wasting your talents. If this is case, you must overcome it, as this is when you are most in danger of dissipation.

Mercury is your patron planet but remember, he wasn't just a traveller and a quick thinker, he was also a thief and a liar, so beware of this. You have much vitality and enthusiasm and will remain the eternal youth. Aspects to avoid are being restless, discontented and wanting constant change. You have to learn not to leap on every passing fantasy but to stick to your tasks until they are complete.

You may succeed as a travelling salesman, in tourism, real estate, advertiser, diagnostician, veterinary or conservation, psychologist, import and export, writer, personnel director, detective, stocks and shares, teacher or lecturer, forensics, promoter, druggist or pharmacist, teacher of the occult, lecturer, or as a writer of mystery or detective stories.

Your Power Number:

Your Power Number is obtained by adding your Name Destiny and Birth Path together. It is a beacon light directing you throughout your lifespan but it is most noticeable and effective during the latter part of your life. It acts as a summation of all your personal numbers, putting them under one focus or final goal.

How you can prepare for a happy old age

Your life was mapped out for you at your birth but most individuals have been too busy earning a living and assuming the responsibilities of family to be cognizant of the influences and strength behind your Power Number. The latter years can be the best in your entire life, for then your Power Number will be operating in full force. It indicates a new experience or lesson added, as well as an extra opportunity. When in your twilight years, you will have time to re-evaluate your life thus ensure your Power Number works for you. One way to prepare for this is to have a hobby, which you can pursue at full speed.

Number Three

This is your opportunity for true self-expression in words, either in speaking, writing or acting. Give speeches on any subject of your choice or entertain on the platform, for you have a talent in the use of words and a good sense of humour. You are creative and have a good imagination. Don't waste time scattering your talents, but work toward a definite goal. See further attributes under "General Meaning of Numbers".

General Meaning of Power Number:

Number Three

This number refers to Jupiter and takes on the powers of that planet. It is the largest of the planets in the solar system, and the only planet that gives off more energy than it receives from the sun. If you are a number three, you take life as it comes, love pleasure, and are essentially youthful.

You have the talent for expressing yourself well in speaking, writing or acting. As a number three, you are gifted in being creative, but you are not noted for being practical unless four is prominent in your Numerology. You dream big ventures, for you think on a large scale. Having a quick and keen mind, you learn easily. You always want to inject beauty and create new ideas in every situation. And since you have good luck, you see no reason why you can't lend a hand to others.

You can bridge the new into the old and make the seam between the two invisible. You can accomplish almost anything you decide you want to do. You are endowed with a super-imagination, and for this reason you may gravitate to the entertainment field. This can lead to many opportunities and financial success.

Your love of everything is infectious, and this gives you a deadly attraction to the opposite sex. It is common for their beloved to take things more seriously than the threes themselves. Even when threes are serious, they can't help but do a little flirting and might have an affair or two, discreetly on the side. If threes aren't with the ones they love, they often love the one they are with. It's just the way they see the world. The difficulty is, even when threes are serious about another person (or persons), their partner/s might not realise it.

Many fields of endeavour are open to a number three. Because of this, you must be careful not to scatter your talents in too many directions. Expression is your keynote so you must guard against being too talkative, causing strained situations or even loss of friends. Very few threes are accused of worrying or being depressed, for they enjoy the social life. There are three types of threes. One is the 'studious or mental variety'; another is 'social'; and the third type is 'emotional and slightly unstable'.

You could succeed in advertising, promotions or in copyright, actor or performer, architect or designer, artist, beautician, clergyman, comedian, designer, entertainer, hairdresser, host or hostess, humorist or comedian, interior decorator, judge or arbitrator, landscape surveyor, model, musician, painter, playwright, photographer, graphic designer, public relations, restaurant manager, social or media correspondent, a salesman especially in health and cosmetics, schoolteacher, speaker or lecturer, training workshops, theatrical director or producer, and writer.

How to Reach your Plane of Success:

Your personality, characteristics, skill and general disposition are revealed here. The most frequent numbers in your Full Baptismal Name (Page 3) show which field you will do your best work in. Through the planes, you will learn if you have a practical, emotional, imaginative or intuitive outlook on life.

The Emotional Plane

If your Full Name has many threes, then you are on the emotional plane. At times, you will have more heart than mind. You are sympathetic and sentimental and that love and affection may rule over reason and logic at times. You have a great imagination and are artistic and creative and you are absorbed by ideas rather than material facts. Consult your Full Name to ascertain if you have too many of these numbers (threes) if so, you show a lack self-direction and you are highly strung. On the flip side, too few threes show it is hard for you to express your feelings.

Threes are very artistic and have considerable talent for using words in writing or speaking. Many threes have a tendency to be disorderly and unsystematic unless twos or fours are prominent. You do not like to be tied down to pure facts alone as your imagination is so very strong. You are very creative but act impulsively at times. Being versatile, you are apt to scatter your talents. You can make others happy as you are a natural entertainer. Threes are not at their best doing manual labour.

Your Cosmic Talents and Lessons:

To find out your Talents and Lessons look at your Full Baptismal Name (Page 3), to establish the origins of these numerological values. Numerologists drop at least two fives from your Full Name when doing this exercise, that is because fives are such common numbers.

Good qualities and areas to develop and strengthen are shown as your Natural Talents. If you trust and concentrate on your talents, your life will become a bag of jewels. The Cosmic Lessons reflect the qualities that you lack and which hinder your success in life. They are shown as barriers in which you have to make a conscious effort to conquer the personal deficiencies to improve your life.

Number One

Natural Talents:

Many ones show ambition, independence and individual interests. This often indicates a selfish domineering person, unless two is prominent.

Number Two

Cosmic Lesson:

Number Three

Natural Talents:

Many threes show you are able to express yourself well. You have a strong imagination and a good sense of humour. You must learn to assume responsibility. Avoid being impatient.

Number Four

Natural Talents:

Many fours show economy, thrift, order, honesty and a penchant for hard work. You should learn to concentrate and use good judgement. You are good at details and routine. You may be stubborn.

Number Five

Cosmic Lesson:

If you show few or no fives, you had a constant fear of facing change or anything new in the past. A lack of understanding, curiosity and interest in your fellowmen is indicated. This number is seldom lacking. You have to learn to face these changes, which leads to new discoveries.

Number Six

Cosmic Lesson:

If you show few or no sixes, you showed an unwillingness to assume responsibility beforehand. You feared being tied down to the home and family. This means you have much to learn about being a good partner in marriage and a good parent. Many adjustments will be necessary, including domestic responsibility and service to others.

Cosmic Lesson:

If you show few or no sevens, you formerly lacked understanding between the material and spiritual. Plus you avoided turning in for guidance. You have a fear of faith and what it entails. You revealed a lack of technique, analysis and willingness to train your mind and examine conditions before you jump to conclusions.

Your Challenges or Stumbling Blocks:

If a Master Number appears in your Birth Path, you should reduce it to a single digit for this exercise. Every human being has weak traits or challenges in his makeup. No task is too difficult for you to handle as you have the ability to accomplish all that is required of you in this lifetime. Meeting a challenge head-on and resolving to cross hurdles by using your talents constructively, helps build character. Learn quickly and you will encounter a decided change in your life toward progress and success. If a specific challenge appears more than once, it is regarded as important. Your greatest rewards come from acknowledging these challenges.

Subtract those two numbers above = your 3rd Main challenge (most important) (1)

Digit of month – (subtract) digit of year = 4th Test challenge (subordinate to 3rd) (1)

Number Three Challenge (Your 1st Sub Challenge)

You must avoid scattering your talents, for you have a tendency to do many things at once. Instead of burying your talents, you should bring them out so that they will multiply and bring joy to others. You have a fine imagination and a gift for words but you often find it difficult to express yourself effectively. You dislike criticism and become a recluse when you should mingle in society and cultivate friends. You should write or lecture for you are creative or take an interest in dancing, singing, acting, or chatting because you are a welcome addition to a group. You must learn not to be extravagant or to waste time, money, or words. You should not gossip or succumb to moodiness.

Number Four Challenge (Your 2nd Sub Challenge)

The number four challenge shows you should discipline yourself to be orderly, punctual and systematic. You have a good sense of values which are undeveloped as you are inclined to be lazy, careless, stubborn and opinionated. So too, you are negligent about details and appointments. You dislike work, being frugal and are often a procrastinator. Also, you are prone to worry needlessly. You can succeed if you develop the practical side of your nature. Constant change or restlessness will not be an incentive to doing the hard work that is still required of you.

Number One Challenge (Your 3rd and Main Challenge)

You must learn to develop a strong willpower, strength of character and courage or you will be subjected to being bossed and held down by others, especially your relatives. You will meet with much interference but you should not blame others, be resentful, or belligerent. You may find yourself vacillating and turning in every direction to please others but you will accomplish nothing, not even pleasing yourself until you become determined to learn to command respect of others. First, ascertain if you are right and then forge ahead, not with a chip on your shoulder but firmly. You have creative and original ideas, which you must put to use.

Number One Challenge (Your 4th Test Challenge – subordinate to 3rd)

You must learn to develop a strong willpower, strength of character and courage or you will be subjected to being bossed and held down by others, especially your relatives. You will meet with much interference but you should not blame others, be resentful, or belligerent. You may find yourself vacillating and turning in every direction to please others but you will accomplish nothing, not even pleasing yourself until you become determined to learn to command respect of others. First, ascertain if you are right and then forge ahead, not with a chip on your shoulder but firmly. You have creative and original ideas, which you must put to use.

Your Pinnacles - What you will Face:

Everyone will face a crossroad at least once in his or her life, and then it is useful to know your pinnacle because it serves as a route marker to guide you on the right path. Combine your appropriate Pinnacle to your Name Destiny to get best results. Studying your pinnacles helps you understand changes in your mood and attitudes towards people and things. It not only provides opportunities but also obstacles as blessings in disguise. Master Numbers are reduced to do this exercise.

Date of Birth: 7/04/1947

Add Single Digits: 7+ 4+ (21) 3

Digit of the month + (add) the digit of the day = 1st Pinnacle. (11)
Digit of the day + (add) the digit of the year = 2nd Pinnacle. (1)
Digit of 1st Pinnacle + (add) the 2nd Pinnacle = 3rd Pinnacle. 3 (3)
Digit of the month + (add) the digit of the year = 4th Pinnacle. (7)

A cycle of nine determines the length of each of your Pinnacles. A full circle is 360° (° = degrees) and we divide this into 4 parts of 90° each. For this exercise, we drop the 0 from 360 and then subtract the single digit of your Personal Birth Path from this 36 and the answer provides the duration of your 1st pinnacle. To get the length of the 2nd pinnacle, we add 9 years to the end of the 1st pinnacle. For the 3rd period, we add another 9 years at the end of the 2nd pinnacle. The 4th pinnacle begins at the end of the 3rd period and it is effective until the end of your life.

Pinnacle Number Eleven (From 0 to 31 years old)

The eleven pinnacle will give you the opportunity of being in the limelight and appearing before the public. This is a good period for spiritual expansion. You may be living with nervous tension as much is expected of you, but your ideals should be above average. This is a good period for fame and recognition. You may be led to uncover inventive abilities or religious tendencies. If an eleven occurs as your pinnacle, dissolution of a partnership (marriage or business) may take place, which may cause you to seek solace in spiritual studies or through inspirational work.

Pinnacle Number One (From 32 to 40 years old)

The one pinnacle gives you the opportunity to be a leader, for you have executive ability and are individualistic in thought and action. You are independent and original. This and a ten pinnacle often forces you to stand on your own feet and to rely upon yourself and not others for success. This might make you obstinate and domineering. Under this pinnacle you should get prepared to be courageous and independent, so that you don't lose out on the great opportunities provided by your original ideas. As a latter pinnacle, it will give you the chance to do outstanding work. It is always an active period filled with changes.

Pinnacle Number Three (From 41 to 49 years old)

This is a good period to develop your creative, promotional or artistic ability, as you are inspirational and have good ideas. This is not a physical but a mental period.

You may have the opportunity for writing, speaking, copyrighting, interior design, and stage or movie entertainment. Your imagination and feeling will be on top form. This is also an excellent period to attract money but remember, to accomplish this you must be prepared to put forth the necessary effort to channel your talent into a definite artistic, imaginative or creative field. Your emotions should be curbed at all times and kept under control.

Pinnacle Number Seven (From 50 to the end of your life) (You are in this period)

Under a seven pinnacle, you should be interested in educational and scientific pursuits. You should specialize, for perfection is demanded. This is a good period to study metaphysics and the hidden forces of nature. You will be interested in spiritual progress and not material success during this period. You may be aloof, introspective, feel repressed and be moody which may cause trouble in your family. You may feel you lack money but if you study, train your mind, learn and develop a good understanding of the meaning of life, your knowledge and skill will bring success in the end. You must be honest, patient, and understanding, otherwise you may have difficulty in marriage or in any partnership.

Opportunities, Cautions & Duties:

If one of your Pinnacle Numbers or Cosmic Lessons appears in your chart thus far, it has special significance, which is listed under Summation.

Summation:

1. Your Name Destiny number and your Pinnacle number are the same, so you will receive help to carry out the work of your talents or abilities.

THIS WILL BE THE CASE FROM 50 YEARS OLD UNTIL THE END OF YOUR LIFE

2. Your Pinnacle and your Power number are alike, so success should be imminent for you if you utilize your potentials fully.

THIS WILL BE THE CASE FROM 41 TO 49 YEARS OLD

3. Your Pinnacle is the same as one of your Cosmic Lessons, so it will be a difficult period unless you have previously learned your lesson.

PAY ATTENTION TO THE COSMIC LESSON (7) FROM 50 YEARS OLD UNTIL THE END OF YOUR LIFE

Cosmic Duties:

These are reconstructive duties shown in your Name Destiny and Birth Path because through their experience the necessary growth can be gained. They lead to adjustments in your life so that possible weaknesses don't continually fuel heartache.

This indicates the crushing of human pride and vanity, thus testing your optimism and faith. The structure is built of ignorance and wrong doing through a self-centred life - if not corrected it will depict ruin, defeat of plans, disgrace, accidents, deception and adversity. Not until we understand the true nature of willpower do we destroy false ideas and learn what is right. You must not cling to the material or you will encounter broken dreams, loss of position, fortune, power and friends. Sixteen also warns of illegitimate love affairs.

The basic message of the warning in number fourteen is lack of understanding. Often we don't understand the motives of others, or even our own motives at times, for we act in one-way and think and feel in another. Through understanding, we develop humility, compassion and overflowing love. We should avoid going to extremes. It is hard for a fourteen to learn its lesson if they try to gain freedom by destructive methods or at the expense of others. This will bring a loss of property, failure in business, sickness or even death. You are too interested in your physical senses so you must learn the lesson of detachment. Be temperate or you'll experience many emotional upsets and delays.

How to let Numerology Guide you in the Future:

This system of foretelling the future has esoteric significance and it is not based on speculation. There is no element of good or bad luck involved. By taking note of the numbers you can discern: A propitious time to begin new undertakings, the wisdom of delay, and your inaction during certain periods. This is to avoid loss or disappointment and to protect your health and finances. It would be wise to make your own personal notes during this 2-Year-Cycle (forecast). After that, I will provide your 9-Year-Cycle which will help you plan and feel confident with your future. On completion of your 9th personal year, you simply revisit your 1st personal year again, and follow this rotation on an ongoing basis. The 9-Year-Chart is the closest thing to a crystal ball that you will ever get. It will assist you to have much better control over your destiny, especially if you make records the personal happenings during each year.

Numerology Periods from your Birthday in 2008

We combine your Personal Year to the Universal Year to do this exercise. Sums are added in columns. The universal year + your Year of Birth (reduced to a double digit) provides your Overtone, this data gives the overview of your whole year ahead. The universal year + your Age = your 1st period. The universal year + your Birth Path (reduced) = your 2nd period. The last column is of the universal year + Your Key = your 3rd period (the Key is derived from the day you were born). I recommend you diarise your own personal notes during each 4-month period ahead. This is because when you get to the end of your 9-year cycle you simply rollover, back to your year-one, to face the same scenario again. This is when your notes will assist you.

The Overtone controls the current year from your birthday this year, till your birthday next year. The overtone is calculated on your personal year of birth and not on the universal year. It serves as an umbrella - which covers each four-month periods ahead.

Overtone

Number 31. Much like thirty except even more self-contained, lonely and isolated from friends. Not fortunate from worldly standpoint. You feel insecure and will be wavering. Number 30 says that it is neither fortunate nor unfortunate. It is a period for thoughtful deduction, retrospection and mental superiority over others. Often this is a time of study or drawing up plans for a new project. It can be powerful.

Extra considerations: Imagine what you could accomplish if you let go of that belief that you are not allowed to make mistakes - or that you must turn your own light down to let someone else's shine. Making mistakes is how you discover what will work and what won't. In guilt, there is never a point at which you have done or given enough. Guilt tells you not to rest - but the healing you need can't take place until you do!

1st period 7 Apr - 7 Aug 2008

Number 35. This is the same as 17 or 26. Number 17 says: It is a good financial vibration. Use knowledge gained of experiences from the past to deal with present situation. Star of Hope or Magi, which means it is a fortunate number. Numbers 17, 20 and 21 are the best vibrations in Numerology. Number 26 says: Look forward to a superb financial period. Sometime during this time you will get more money. But if good judgement is not used you can throw away all you've accumulated. Money received at this time may be spent without much thought and with great rapidity. Keep an eye on your health when older, many people suffer a stroke in a 26 period. Watch partnerships, investments and bad speculation. So, though this is a good period, it does warn you to be careful as well.

Extra considerations: Being at close quarters with others is not always easy or pleasant, so exercise patience, friendliness and flexibility. Imaginative solutions could be fabricated. Take the time to see and appreciate the beauty in your midst and within you. Your concept of beauty and attraction may be changing in a way that surprises you.

2nd period 7 Aug - 7 Dec 2008

Number 24. This is a family love vibration. It is always a family affair offering both devotion and support. Gain through love and the opposite sex, sometime during this period others will give you the glad-eye. Favourable for future plans. This is a personal number. It brings love and joy but sometimes sorrow because it may bring illness in the home. Good for getting money or favours from others. This indicates births and love affairs but in combination with a 18 or 27 (Overtone or Period) - big changes, separation or divorce.

Extra considerations: Assessing which direction will best serve your long-term interests is a complex procedure. The more you try to rush, the less you will be able to grasp it. This transitional cycle between feeling lost and finding your higher self, is pointing out the problems of fear that come through impatience. Slow down to think carefully.

3rd period 7 Dec - 7 Apr 2009

Number 22. It does not occur often. Be very careful affairs will be in a pivotal state and about to break. It is best not to act but if you do, be sure to consult someone who is well informed. This is a time for false judgement and you will just get in your own way. May be a time of many decisions or one major decision and a mistake made during this period could take the next nine years to pay for. It is the worst vibration possible. Indicates the harder one works the less he/she accomplishes. It is a warning number. The number of sudden endings, but if lived through is like a rebirth or new start. It indicates change of plans or place. A combination of 23 Overtone & 22 Period = Decision concerning legal matters, travel and health. It can sometimes show unwise love affairs. Jack up your security as you could get robbed in a 22 period.

YOUR ASTRO-NUMRO YEAR - FOR 2008

Domain www.numero2know.com cancelled. New website: www.whatamatch.net.
Or email: renee@whatamatch.net

Since it is difficult to grasp the mystical meanings behind the Numerology predictions until you are familiar with them, I have included the Astro-Numro Forecast too. But I must stipulate that the Numerology Periods are very accurate, especially in business.

The Astro-Numro Chart is calculated on the Universal Year (1st Jan - 31st Dec) coupled with your Birth Path from your birthday onwards. I have watched this way of foretelling for the last nine years. In my opinion, it is about 70% accurate. Read through it and judge for yourself at the end of the year.

The Universal Year is 2008 , which means $2 + 0 + 0 + 8 = 28$ then $2 + 8 = 10$. So, (10) is the number for this Universal Year. Now add your Birth Path to the Universal Year Number to discover your year from your birthday ahead.

$$\begin{array}{r} \text{Your Personal Birth Path} = \quad 5 \\ \text{Universal Year} \quad \quad \quad = + \quad \underline{10} \\ \hline \text{Total} \quad \quad \quad \quad \quad \quad 15 \quad (1 + 5 = 6 \quad) \end{array}$$

This makes your Astro-Numro Number (6) from your birthday onwards.

Number Six - Venus

Harmony and fair play are features of a '6' year, so if anything is out of balance or doing irreparable harm, events conspire to right the situation - even if that means going on the war path.

Romance, pleasure and all those things that make life lovelier and more liveable are to the fore and you will want to make the very best of yourself. It's a makeover time.

During this year:

- ✓ Love affairs, engagements, marriages and mergers of a business kind.
- ✓ Better social life. The holiday of a lifetime.
- ✓ Improved finances. Settlements.
- ✓ Artistic, cultural and pleasure-oriented pursuits.
- ✗ Ill-conceived financial ventures.
- ✗ Break-ups and relationship tensions.
- ✗ Gynaecological issues.

Career & Finance:

If you began a business last year or changed career direction, you can build steadily throughout this year. Employers, employees and the overall public will be keen to support you. Your most important assets are your personal charm and your ability to diffuse difficult situations.

Careers in the arts, fashion and leisure industry are particularly favourable and whatever your job, getting on well with people and bringing beauty, harmony and light into the workplace will work wonders.

Financially a '6' year brings the opportunity to feel freer and easier about money and the tendency to fritter money away or make poor investments. Take the best financial advice available and don't be tempted to take on large loans. Even a new mortgage must be kept well within your means. Otherwise, this is far from being one of the lean years.

Home & Lifestyle:

You have twice the chance of finding happiness on the home front. Indeed, this could be the start of a whole new era for domestic and family concerns. But regardless of your position, this should produce some bright spots so far as property and living arrangements are concerned. Decoration and up-market moves typify a '6' year and you will want to make the most of your living space. Pregnancy and welcome adult additions are on the cards and there could be major celebrations in the home territory.

Holidays are necessary this year. Not only will you enjoy the sheer self-indulgence of it all but you could meet some new and rather special people away from the home ground. Exercise and improving the body beautiful are also features of a '6' year. So, make the most of it.

Love & Relationships:

This is the most important area of life this year. Bad relationships give way to good ones, whether that means you clear up problems in an existing partnership and move on to a new level of happiness, or whether you experience a break-up after which someone wonderful appears in your life.

If you've been happy living with someone or going out for a while, this is the time for wedding bells - or at least selecting the date. And, even if nothing happens to change your current partnership, you will have invitations to a wedding or engagement do. Getting your love life together is the theme for this year. The '6' year will show you the limitations of being a solo act as well as revealing the cracks in relationships.

You find it hard to make decisions. See too many sides to an issue.

Overtone:

Number 23. This brings many changes and sometimes legal proceedings and settling of estates in some form or fashion. Often there is extensive travelling. It is a peculiar vibration with nervous and high tension. Often needs a doctor. New contacts. It can mean success. Good for dealing with money, speculation or changes in business, but some risk is involved. Sometimes indicates unwise divorce. You might find all this to be a tedious or stressful period. Usually works out in social and family obligations.

Extra considerations: Your situation contains many details and involves other people. There is no need to become overwhelmed by the intricacy of it all, or to feel guilty about wanting more freedom. But you do need to get more organized. Whatever you are distracting yourself with, is delaying your freedom.

1st period 7 Apr - 7 Aug 2009

Number 28. Watch out for contradictions - if anybody contradicts himself or herself keep your distance. Losses through trust in others - remember to hold your own counsel, don't tell people your plans during this time. Opposition and competition - whatever you are doing, expect an increase in competition and opposition to your plans. It can be either fortunate or unfortunate, depending on how you handle your plans and financial affairs.

Extra considerations: The focus is on work, how things work, or how your working life is. You are reflecting on your various dependencies and no matter how vehemently you deny your feelings, you can't move forward till you admit your fear of what lays ahead. The essence of independence is choice, you have an important one to make now.

2nd period 7 Aug - 7 Dec 2009

Number 25. This is a path of trial, petty annoyances and annoying health conditions. Symbolizes accidents or difficulties but sometimes brings surprising opportunities. Be alert because you can expect the unexpected. However bear in mind, it is not a good time to start new projects, take a trip or sign papers without seeking expert advice. Occasionally, it's an unfortunate number with revolution and failure, not good.

Extra considerations: This slows you down to a pace that will improve your timing and allow you to notice things you need to see. The plan you are following is incomplete because it was formed when you knew less than you know today. This is not a delay, but a vital course-correction that will change your scenery, accelerate your pace, and improve the atmosphere. Be patient with your progress as this is important now.

3rd period 7 Dec - 7 Apr 2010

Number 23. This brings many changes and sometimes legal proceedings and settling of estates in some form or fashion. Often there is extensive travelling. It is a peculiar vibration with nervous and high tension. Often needs a doctor. New contacts. It can mean success. Good for dealing with money, speculation or changes in business, but some risk is involved. Sometimes indicates unwise divorce. You might find all this to be a tedious or stressful period. Usually works out in social and family obligations.

Extra considerations: Your situation contains many details and involves other people. There is no need to become overwhelmed by the intricacy of it all, or to feel guilty about wanting more freedom. But you do need to get more organized. Whatever you are distracting yourself with, is delaying your freedom.

YOUR ASTRO-NUMRO YEAR - FOR 2009

Since it is difficult to grasp the mystical meanings behind the Numerology predictions until you are familiar with them, I have included the Astro-Numro Forecast too. But I must stipulate that the Numerology Periods are very accurate, especially in business.

The Universal Year is 2009, which means $2 + 0 + 0 + 9 = 29$ then $2 + 9 = 11$. So, (11) is the number for this Universal Year. Now add your Birth Path to the Universal Year Number to discover your year from your birthday ahead.

$$\begin{array}{r} \text{Your Personal Birth Path} = 5 + \\ \text{Universal Year} = 11 \\ \hline \text{Total} = 16 \quad (1 + 6 = 7) \end{array}$$

This makes your Astro-Numro Number(7) from your birthday onwards.

Number Seven - Neptune

Magic and mystery with a touch of mayhem are the hallmarks of a '7' year - but not necessarily in that order. If you find yourself in a sea of confusion, enjoy or suffer the experience, but make sure that you have someone reliable in your life to help you cope with the daily practicalities.

Your spiritual nature is being evoked this year so you can anticipate some magnificently divine moments and a degree of personal sacrifice and hardship.

During this year:

- ✓ Heightened intuition. Divine intervention.
- ✓ Peak experiences in the world of love.
- ✓ A lucky break.
- ✓ Success and enjoyment closely linked in with the arts and glamour industries.
- ✗ Financial chaos. Misrepresentation of the facts of the matter.
- ✗ Disappointments and cruel betrayals.
- ✗ Lack of resistance to infection and an adverse reaction to treatments.

Career & Finance:

You can achieve the job of a lifetime in a '7' year but unexpected career developments in the less welcome sense, perhaps a redundancy or an unwanted move, are equally likely. Certainly, this is a year when one should bank on nothing and be as conservative as possible when it comes to financial commitments.

The arts, film, travel and glamour business thrive in a '7' year, so if you're wondering where to focus your job-seeking energies you know where to look for the best chance of success. Dedication is a quality you require now, but what you must watch out for is a slight tendency towards self-delusion coupled with poor long-term planning. Miracles do happen in a '7' year, but you can do a lot to help yourself by keeping a tight watch on your accounts and spending.

Home & Lifestyle:

If you like being near water you're going to love a '7' year. This produces opportunities to spend some time by the sea, rivers or lakes; and in some cases the chance to live there. Take up a water sport or simply take time to enjoy watery environments. The down side to all this Neptunian fluidity is the possibility of problems with the plumbing - damp-proofing, washing machine glitches and leaks of various kinds are unfortunately all part and parcel of a '7' year.

Sometimes you experience a loss on the home front so making your living quarters as secure as possible and keeping an eye on those things and people of great value is a wise practice. Travel, too, is likely and probably quite some distance. By the way, don't forget your camera, as photography could become more than just a hobby.

Love & Relationships:

You can hit the romantic heights in a big way this year. The purer love of the heart is evoked as opposed to the wild spark of physical passion - not that this means you are destined for a platonic relationship or celibate year, its just that '7' is a very high frequency number and tends to inspire the most divine sort of love. Finding your soul mate or making a real life commitment to your partner is a genuine possibility in a '7' year.

However there is a less wonderful side to this number, this often emerges in the theme of betrayal, even if it means you suddenly see your loved one in the cold harsh light of reality. Be careful whom you trust with important matters and if you are badly let down, you can reassure yourself with the understanding that the person who failed to stand by you simply wasn't worthy of you.
